EDITORIAL.

Those of us who have been here long enough to remember the happy days when boxing meant more than a silver cup and masters were permanent institutions have no doubt by now come to the quite justifiable conclusion that this school lies somewhere on a line AB and that English tutorial society is migrating from a mysterious point A to an even more mysterious point B. For the continual change of faces upon the staff these last two terms has been, to say the least, somewhat startling. Indeed instead of a school-master watching his boys change from "boys to men and men to ripe old age," nowadays the boy sees the more phenomenal change of master into mistress and then master into soldier.

With the advent of the Air Training Corps the school has taken on a more warlike and military air and though there have been so far no barks of sergeant-majors heard about the building it can be plainly recognised that Caesar is now translated to numbers. The Editor hastens to answer an A.T.C. Cadet in Upper Vb. and assure him that the School Certificate invigilators do understand Morse.

After a lapse of five years, drama has once more been restored to its proper place in the school with crimson coconuts having superseded les femmes-muettes. The very successful first (and last) night of the two plays has undoubtedly whetted our appetite for more, and everyone concerned, from the leading lady to the ubiquitous scene-shifter, is to be congratulated for recreating a dramatic sense in the school.

As another Forestry Commission camp is to be held during the summer, this time in Monmouthshire, the Editor can, like other famous people, close his few words by saying that we must rise above the minor difficulties of the common round and the somewhat larger difficulties of annual examinations, for—

"Westward look—the land is bright!"

We congratulate H. H. Maddams on being placed in Class II. Division I. of the Historical Tripos, Part I., at Cambridge.

We have been very privileged to hear and see musicians of great ability and charm, on several occasions when Mr. Wintersgill has arranged concerts. Their concerts are described in the Music Notes.

It is hoped that another camp of about 30 boys will be held this year (23rd August—10th September) under the auspices of the Forestry Commissioners, to take part in pit wood operations. We have accepted the offer of a site at Itton near Chepstow, Mon.

The Sixth Form have, this term, had the pleasure of listening to two courses of lectures by Mr. Hall Todd the County Secretary of the League of Nations Union on the International situation as it affects France and the Middle East.

The School National Savings Group since Christmas has collected £86-14-0.

At the Commemoration Service on June 11th the preacher was the Revd. Canon J. Trevor Lewis, Vicar of All Saints’, Northampton, and the Chairman of the Governors read the Lesson.

CRICKET.

First Eleven.

Captain : J. A. MABBUTT.
Vice-Captain : J. D. FIELDER.
Other Full-Colour : J. W. SHERWOOD.
Secretary : A. M. HALL.

In charge of kit : J. A. MABBUTT AND D. F. WHITE.

The Eleven has usually been :—J. A. Mabbutt, J. D. Fielder, J. W. Sherwood, N. A. H. James, L. A. Green, A. M. Hall, R. Cross, S. Elks, P. H. Jessop, R. H. Edwards, D. F. White. T. Willmott and N. J. P. Collings have also played on occasions.

The First Eleven started the season with quite bright prospects and so far have maintained a good level of efficient and successful cricket. They have an outstanding good fast bowler in Fielder, they are keen and efficient in the field and have two very good batsmen in Mabbutt and Sherwood. These assets, with adequate support from the rest of the team have enabled them to put up some very good cricketing performances so far. There is room for improvement in throwing-in in the field; a little too much reliance is being placed on Fielder in the bowling and the batting has lacked solidity occasionally but on the whole this is a good year.
Matches played.

Saturday, May 24th v. Daventry G.S. on the School ground.
School 89.
Daventry 19 (Fielder 7 for 9, Edwards 3 for 9).

The 'under 15' XI.

The (under 15) IX. has this year a strong, keen side and is doing very well. They have a good fast-medium bowler in P. J. Peck and he is well supported by Ellson and Goodey. The fielding is active and the batting of a good average, with Munns and Goodey outstanding.

The side has usually been:

Captain: Goodey.
Vice-Captain: P. J. Peck.

Matches played.

Bedford Modern 36 (Peck 4 for 17, Goodey 3 for 13).
School 38 for 2.
Saturday, June 21st v. Northampton Town and County School on the School ground.

School 115 (Munns 22, Peck 32, Goodey 40).
Northampton 113 (Peck 4 for 46, Bond 3 for 8).

The ‘Under 14’ XI.

The ‘under 14’ XI is developing very well. Hardwick is becoming a really good attacking medium bowler, Addis’ batting is very promising, they have a good and keen wicket-keeper in D. Knight and an efficient and conscientious captain in Ager. When their batting is steadier they should be able to hold their own with most other ‘under 14’ school sides.

The team has usually been:
Ager (Captain), D. Knight (Vice-Captain), J. Addis, Hardwick, Burrows, K. E. White, Field, Howe, F. Taylor, Bond, Pearce.
Scorer: Bridgeford.

ATHLETIC SPORTS.

CROSS COUNTRY.
The Senior and Junior Inter-house competitions this year, held on March 10th, proved exciting for the competitors as the course was heavy after recent bad weather and the brook was full. On the next day when the Middle run was held the course was easier.
The results were:

Over 15: (Time 22 min. 42 4/5 secs.)
13—15. (Time 19 min. 39 4/5 secs.)

Under 13. (Time 20 min. 47 1/5 secs.)

The total points were:

In the annual run against Daventry Grammar School our team really excelled itself this year. The event was held on the home course on Saturday, March 15th, and in spite of the fact that there were 24 runners we had the first five men home. West Ham Grammar School, now sharing our building, ran the third team. The points gained were: The School 23 : West Ham 69 1/2 : Daventry 86 1/2. Time: 22 min. 15 3/5 secs.

The School was represented by: Shipman, Edwards, Drage, Elks, Esson, Bayes, Pope, Fielder, who came home in that order. Shipman did very creditable work, both as Captain and Secretary.

AIR TRAINING CORPS.

Towards the end of last term, permission was given for the formation of a School Unit of the Air Training Corps. The official name of the unit is No. 980 (Wellingborough G.S. and West Ham G.S.) Flight. Commissions in the training branch of the R.A.F.V.R. have been granted to Dr. A. B. Adamson, Mr. I. J. Nicholas and Mr. M. A. Crosby. At the present time we have over 70 enthusiastic members and we are glad to include in this number 8 Old Boys and 23 boys of West Ham Grammar School. Regular parades have been held throughout the term and good progress has been made in several branches of the syllabus. It is hoped that a number of cadets will soon be able to qualify for proficiency stars. We also hope it will not be long before we are supplied with the official badges and cadet uniforms.

At the beginning of next term we shall welcome all boys who are then over 15 and wish to join the A.T.C. They will have the advantage of preliminary training and will be enrolled as cadets on reaching the age of 16.

We offer our sincere thanks to those members of the Staff who have helped with training, to Mr. Duffy of West Ham G.S., to Dr. J. Corbett our Hon. Medical Officer and to Fl. Lt. E. M. Witham for his advice and help on many occasions. Finally we thank the Headmaster for his interest in our progress and the valuable help he has given in the formation of the Grammar School unit.
SCHOOL MUSIC.

On December 15th and again on December 19th, 1940, the Choir sang a concert of Christmas Music. Part I. consisted of selections from Bach’s Christmas Oratorio, sections I. & II., with additional chorale verses (from Songs of Praise No. 80) in place of the long choruses. Part II. consisted of Sweelinck’s motet ‘Born Today’ with the carols ‘Brightest and best,’ ‘Still the night,’ ‘Adeste fideles,’ ‘Away in a manger,’ ‘O little one sweet,’ and ‘While shepherds watched.’

The Special Choir sang a Recital of Sacred Music on January 26th, 1941, at Finedon Methodist Church: Anthems: Come Holy Ghost (Attwood), Wash me throughly (S. S. At the Commemoration Service on June 11th, the Choir sang, 'My song is love unknown' (A. Whitehead).

During the year four Music Recitals have been arranged by Mr. Wintersgill, with the intention of presenting standard, even hackneyed, music which it is felt the school should know. On October 30th, 1940, Mrs. Saunders (Round), contralto, sang songs by Hahn, Quilter, Handel and Michael Head; Mr. Ballantyne (West Ham Grammar School), piano, played Ireland's Island Spell, Chopin Study No. 10, Brahms Rhapsody in G minor and Debussy Arabesque No. 1; Mr. Wintersgill, piano, played Beethoven's 'Moonlight' Sonata and Chopin's Nocturne in E. flat.

On November 29th, Miss Joyce Hall (Round), violoncello, played a Handel Bourree, Rimsky-Korsakoff Chant Hindou, Saint-Saens' Le Cygne, W. H. Squire, Tarantella. P. J. Berrill, treble, sang Schubert's Who is Sylvia, Rose among the heather, Hark, hark the lark, and Handel's Where'er you walk. Mr. Wintersgill played part of Grieg's Peer Gynt suite, a Chopin Polonaise in A, Sinding's The Rustle of Spring.

On February 6th, 1941, Mr. C. Brownlie, violin, played Beethoven's 'Spring Sonata,' and various short pieces. Mr. Ballantyne played two pieces from Debussy's 'Children's Corner' and the first movement of Beethoven's 'Pathetique.' Mr. Wintersgill played some short pieces of Chopin, and Rachmaninov's Prelude in C sharp minor.

On February 28th, Mr. Ballantyne played Beethoven's Sonata Pathetique, and Mr. Wintersgill played Mendelssohn's Songs without words Nos. 18, 22, 30; Chopin's Berceuse, and Mozart's Sonata in C (K.545).

At these recitals Mr. Wintersgill gave short analytical talks on the pieces.

Visiting professional artists have given four recitals during the year. On December 6th, 1940, Jean Layton (violin), Mira Howe ('cello), Yvonne Fisher (piano) and Diana Herring (contralto) gave a programme of chamber music and songs.

On May 20th, 1941, Milly Stanfield ('cello) and Sybil Barlow (piano) played cello solos by Cervetto, Handel, and French composers, and piano solos by Bach and Chopin.

On March 21st, 1941, the violinist, Louis Godowsky, gave a recital consisting of Tartini's Devil's Trill Sonata and Variations on a theme of Corelli, movements from concertos of Mendelssohn and Bach (No. 2) and short pieces by Saint-Saens, Brahms, Mozart, Drigo, Bach, Kreisler, Handel, Fiocco and Sarasatti. Mr. Wintersgill accompanied.
On June 6th, 1941, the soprano Margaret Field-Hyde gave a recital of songs. The first group contained Purcell’s On the brow of Richmond Hill, and Come all ye songsters; Have you seen but a white lillie grow, and two XVII. century songs. The second part contained Bach’s Bist du bei mir, Mozart’s Alleluia and four old French songs. The third part contained Vaughan Williams’ The Water Mill and songs by Wolstenholme, Armstrong Gibbs, Gordon Bryan and Parry. Mr. Wintersgill accompanied and between the groups played Hornpipe by Ravenscroft and Chopin’s Nocturne in C minor.

THE SCHOOL SCOUTS.

During last term we enrolled a considerable number of new recruits into the troop.

Our Scouting activities have mainly been confined to the School, where under the supervision of our two A.S.M.’s and Mr. Dunning various tests and proficiency badges were gained.

During the Easter holidays we competed with various troops from the district at the Annual Competition which this year was held at Finedon. Unfortunately we lost the Shield which we had retained for the past three years.

At the end of the holidays we held a troop camp also at Finedon, but conditions were rather arctic.

The prospect of camping with the School during the summer holiday has met universal approval in all ranks and it is hoped we shall be represented there by a great number of camping enthusiasts.

THE SCHOOL PICTURES.

Religious Art has been the subject of the last two sets of pictures. The first consisted of pictures which are truly religious in feeling, without regard to their subject.

2. Buddha preaching under Bodhi Tree Chinese
3. The Annunciation—Bernardo Daddi Italian
4. Birth of Christ Russian

7. Pieta—School of Arignon French
8. Madonna Adoring—Fra Filippo Lippi Italian
9. Madonna—Matthias Grunewald German
10. Horses on the Shore—Giorgio Chirico Italian
The second set showed the later trend away from pure religious feeling towards an idealistic rendering.

1. The Garden of Eden—The Master of the Upper Rhine
   German

2. The Earthly Paradise—Ming School ... Chinese
3. Madonna—Alessio Baldovinetti ... Italian

HOUSE NOTES.

DRAGONS.

House Masters: Mr. C. W. F. Laurie, Mr. I. J. Nicholas.

The House has had quite an eventful time during the last two terms.
We had very good games in the Rugger Cup for which we finally tied with the Stags. The Junior team won all games, and the Seniors won all except against the Stags.
In the Cross Country the seniors did very well, Shipman, Edwards and Pope being the first three home.
House Colours have been awarded to Rich, Davis, Gregory and Collings.
On Sports Day the House did not do as well as on previous years although we were runners-up for the Athletics Cup.
This term we won for the first time the House Music Cup, thanks being due to the hard work put in by K. Page.
So far in the cricket we have played the Lions and Stags, unfortunately losing against both of these teams, but we have high hopes of being more successful against the Gryphons.

---

GRYPHONS.

House Masters: Mr. J. G. Dunning, Dr. A. B. Adamson.

Unfortunately we did rather poorly in the Rugger House matches, being beaten by the Stags and Dragons while we beat the Lions.
During the Lent term we won, mainly by Junior and Middle successes, the Cross Country Cup. Much enthusiasm was shown, especially by the Junior members. Elks and Bayes represented us in the cross country run against Daventry and West Ham.
This term, we won the Athletic Sports Cup, mainly through the efforts of the Middle House, narrowly beating the Dragons.
At cricket we have not done so far, losing the senior games against both the Stags and the Lions. The juniors have played better, narrowly losing the Stags match and beating a strong Lions team. We hope to break our bad spell by beating the Dragons in the next House matches.
We are represented by James, N., Elks, White, D., Peck, P., Streeton, Bond, White, K., Field, and Taylor, F., in School elevens.

In the House Music competition we lost the Cup to the Dragons.

We hope to win back the P.T. cup, which we so narrowly lost to the Stags last year.

LIONS.

House Masters: Mr. E. L. Hole, Mr. H. H. Wintersgill.

Since the last notes many competitions have been decided. We were unsuccessful, the rugger teams being very disappointing. So far we have fared well at cricket, our seniors winning both of their matches and the juniors one. A victory over the Stags would win us this cup. In the house music competition we came second to Dragons.

We congratulate the following Lions who have played for various school teams: Mabbutt (Full colours, cricket), Houghton, D. (half colour rugger), Green, Willmott, Munns, Ellson, Johnson, Nelson, Addis, Knight and Landau.

To all the Lions leaving at the end of this term we wish a successful career.

STAGS.

House Masters: Mr. H. C. Phillips, Dr. A. Jackson.

House Prefects:

During the last two terms the House has carried off its share of the Cups. We did well at Rugger, sharing the cup with the Dragons, but, had a little more support been forthcoming from the Juniors, we should have won it outright. We also won the Ferguson Trophy, mainly due to the large number of Stags who obtained School Certificates last year. We did not do so well as we had expected in the Inter-House Cross Country, despite some good running by members of the Middle Team. Our athletics were not too good either, in spite of Fielder's running and Jessop's excellent jumping, but by an enthusiastic effort we carried off the Henson Relay Cup. We were unplaced in the Music Competition.

At cricket, we have, so far, distinguished ourselves, the Senior XI. and the Junior XI. having won both matches, the former quite easily, the latter by a narrow margin both times. Thus we expect to retain the cricket cup for yet another year.
We have been well represented this term in School teams, especially in the 1st XI, which includes Fielder, Sherwood, Jessop, Hall, and Cross; Lyne has played for the "Under 15" XI., whilst Ager and Burrows have been in the "Under 14" XI.

We wish the best of luck to those Stags who are taking the Higher Certificate and the School Certificate this year, and to those who are leaving at the end of this term.

SCHOOL DRAMATIC SOCIETY.

Two plays, "The Crimson Cocoanut," a farce by Ian Hay, and "Scuttleboom's Treasure," a pirate play, were presented, on Wednesday, 18th June, in the School Hall.

The cast was:

"THE CRIMSON COCOANUT" (Scene: A Soho Restaurant)

Jack Pincher, a detective ... ... S. A. Holmes.
Robert, a waiter ... ... D. T. Banfield.
Mr. Jabstick ... ... P. Rich.
Nancy, his daughter ... ... J. H. Davis.
Nitro Gliserinski, anarchist ... ... G. Gregory.
Madame Gliserinski, his wife ... ... Fisher.

"SCUTTLEBOOM'S TREASURE" (Scene: A desert island).

Black Bill ... ... Layfield.
Sharky Joe ... ... Kitchen.
Look-out Man ... ... Keller.
Slimey Pete ... ... Ager.
Jamaica Jim ... ... King.
Rosebud ... ... Manning.
Ebenezer Scuttleboom ... ... Bayliss.
Litterton ... ... A. J. W. James.
Mr. Fish ... ... Robinson.
Jones ... ... Wallis.
A party of boys ... ... D. A. James, Oyston, Stow, A. W. Reed.
A crew of pirates ... ... A. W. Reed.

These plays, the first, we hope, of many successful productions were greatly appreciated by a large audience, which overflowed the seating accommodation of the hall to the extent that a large band of "groundlings" took up its position on the wall bars overlooking the stage. The actors fitted their parts perfectly, and gave a spirited, fearless, performance, enhanced by their splendid make-up effected by Mr. Thompson, their costumes arranged by Miss J. M. Harrison and Miss N. Bavin, and their scenery designed by Mr. Ballantyne. A tribute is also due to the untiring energy and co-operation of those hardworked, harassed, and glamourless people behind the scenes;—the producers Messrs. Jackson and Hole, the stage manager, G. W. Bradshaw, and the lights and effects director, J. R. Reid.

Robert's love for his invisible "Cookie," Mr. Jabstick's blustering indignation, Madame Gliserinski's most charming condescension and Sharky Joe's short, but brilliant career, will always be remembered as a tradition, which must be upheld by succeeding generations of the Dramatic Society.

At the conclusion, a collection was taken, the proceeds of which went to the funds of the Music and Dramatic Societies.
